Address of the Department Commander.

Comrades:

When you elected me Department Commander at Erie one year ago, I accepted the distinguished honor with a firm determination to do my utmost to at least keep our beloved order to the high standard of excellence it had reached, and to give unstinted time and energy to the duties of the office, with the sincere desire of meriting your approval. If I have in any part failed, it must not be attributed to hesitancy, but rather because the time of one year is inadequate to do full justice to the work in this great department as thoroughly as one would wish. Thus it is with considerable pleasure I am permitted with the grace of God to present this report of my stewardship as Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Pennsylvania for the year now drawing to a close.

VISITATIONS.

I have visited a great many Posts, travelled several thousand miles, attended numerous camp-fires, regimental re-unions and patriotic meetings in different parts of the State, and received invitations to many other Posts and camp-fires which I regretted to be obliged to decline owing to dates of previous engagements conflicting. In visiting the Posts I found them generally in a most satisfactory condition, and the feeling of good comradeship pleased me greatly. The enthusiastic receptions extended to me in all places I visited and occasions I was present, was very gratifying to me, and, I assure you greatly appreciated. Indeed it was a keen disappointment to be unable to meet with each Post, but I was compelled to forego this pleasure on account of my health having been poor during the winter. The visit of the Department Commander invariable arouses greater interest and activity in our grand organization.

On June 17th, I visited Willow Grove on the invitation of the Grand Army Association of Philadelphia and vicinity, comprising the representatives of fifty-one posts. I had the honor of visiting the headquarters tent of each Post, where I was received with marked courtesy by the Commanders and Comrades. The day was pleasant, and I was very glad to be present on that occasion.

On September 10, I visited Middleburg, Snyder county, upon invitation of the Soldiers' Memorial Association, in company with the Assistant Adjutant General, Chief-of-staff, S. N. Callender, Dr. A. M.

Smith, Medical Director, and other members of my staff, and attended one of the most interesting ceremonies in which it has ever been my good fortune to participate.

The Memorial is a beautiful building erected by volunteer contributions of the old soldiers and sailors and their friends. It will have the names of 1,447 soldiers and sailors of the civil war cut on marble tablets and placed on the walls of the interior. Also the names of many Revolutionary and Mexican veterans. The Memorial Building reflects great credit on the comrades of Snyder county and their loyal, patriotic friends.

The magnificent monument erected by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at Arlington Cemetery, Virginia, to the memory of our comrade, General Theodore J. Wint was unveiled and dedicated on October 15th, 1908 with elaborate ceremonies. I was present as a member of the Monument Commission appointed by Governor Stuart. Comrade Wint at the time of his death was a member of Post 139 this Department.

On May 8th, last, I was one of the guests of Post No. 21, at the dedication of the monument, erected through their efforts to the memory of the Comrades of that Post, (the dead as well as the living) in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, the ceremonies were of a most elaborate character, and the Post is to be congratulated upon their successful completion of the work to which they were so devoted.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

I attended the 42nd National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Toledo, Ohio. Head-quarters was established at the Boody House, where thousands of Pennsylvania veterans called, registered and exchanged greetings with their comrades. The Grand Army parade was one of the greatest and grandest feature of the encampment, and the weather was perfect. The Pennsylvania Division made a superb appearance. It was headed by the High School Boys Band, forty pieces, of Bradford, Pennsylvania, followed by Post 2 Veteran Guard of Philadelphia as our escort. Their unique uniforms, soldierly bearing and splendid marching excited great admiration, and they were frequently cheered to the echo. In fact the whole Pennsylvania Division of over three thousand comrades, received an ovation along the entire route. We were everywhere greeted with flowers, in many streets actually walking on them, each citizen seeming to vie with the other in extending hospitality. Too much praise cannot be given to the "Boys High School Band" and to Comrade J. L. Adams, of Bradford, through whose efforts all the expenses of bringing the band to Toledo were met for the pleasure and benefit of the Pennsylvania Division. They had the honor of being the first band to serenade the new Commander-in-Chief, Colonel H. M. Nevius. To Comrade Adams and to Post 2 Veteran Guard the sincere thanks of the Department is hereby extended.

Pennsylvania was represented by a strong delegation of the leading comrades of the Department, Past Commanders-in-Chief, Past Department Commanders and Representatives. They gave strict attention to their duties, and attended faithfully each session of the encampment.

SOLDIERS' HOME AT ERIE.

On Monday, April 12, at Erie, in company with Senior Vice Department Commander Thomas H. Cole, and aide-de-camp on Commander-in-Chief's staff J. C. Sturgeon, I visited the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, and made a thorough inspection of the entire institution. In the absence of the Commander, Captain S. H. Martin, the quarter-master, Captain C. C. Shirk and Dr. W. B. Washabaugh escorted us through the Home explaining everything, courteously answering all questions and introducing us to each inmate. They appeared contented and happy. I also visited the hospital and found a number of sick but apparently cheerful and happy people, receiving the best of care from the nurses in charge. I was greatly impressed with the beautiful surroundings of this magnificent Home and its picturesque location; every comfort is furnished to the inmates. The neat and cleanly condition of every department deserves special commendation; the whole institution reflects great credit upon the managers and officers, upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Grand Army of the Republic. The Home is under the management of eleven trustees, five of whom are comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic. By the authority vested in the Department Commander by an Act of Assembly June 3, 1885, P. L. 62, I appointed the following named comrades as trustees of the Soldiers' Home at Erie. Past Commanders-in-Chief Louis Wagner, Robert B. Beath, Thomas J. Stewart, Past Department Commander H. H. Cumings and Comrade John P. Nicholson.

SOLDIERS' ORPHAN SCHOOLS.

On June 19th, I visited the Chester Springs Soldiers' Orphan School. It was the occasion of their annual commencement exercises. Accompanying me was the Assistant Adjutant General, Assistant Quarter-master General Gramlich, Department Inspector Wells and other members of my staff. The Commission was represented by Comrades, General J. P. S. Gobin, Major Levi G. McCauley, James F. Morrison, Hon. Thad. M. Mahon, Hon. J. S. Stineman, Hon. Chas. E. Quail, Hon. John H. Riebel, Hon. Thomas V. Cooper and Hon. Geo. M. Patterson, we were met by the superintendent, Comrade Dr. H. H. Hughes who kindly escorted us through the different buildings explaining to us the methods of teaching, managing the school, etc. We were greatly pleased with the precision with which the companies of boys went through their military exercises. A sham battle on the campus was interesting and entertaining. The girls gave an exhibition of their proficiency in calisthenics. The fire drill was excellent and exciting. The public exercises were held in the large chapel. I was requested by the retiring Department President, Mrs. Lauderback, of Philadelphia, to present to the school, a portrait of Abraham Lincoln in the name of the Ladies' of the Grand Army of the Republic. General J. P. S. Gobin with a few happy remarks received it in the name of the school. The Superintendent Dr. Hughes and his co-workers are to be congratulated upon the magnificent results of their labors. The children are transferred from this school to the Industrial School at Scotland, at the age of fourteen years.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL AT SCOTLAND.

I also visited the Soldiers' Orphans Industrial School, located at Scotland, the school at which the finished education is given our wards after having been transferred from the other school. This school is splendidly located on high ground in a beautiful open country, which cannot help but add to the health of the pupils, as evidenced by the fact that cases of illness are rare, and an epidemic of sickness unknown. The boys and girls were the very picture of health and physical development.

The buildings are well suited for the purposes for which they were erected, the sanitary arrangements appear to be of the most perfect character. The Auditorium building adjacent to the main structure, is a most valuable recent addition to the purposes of the school. On the first floor are seats for 600 persons in which entertainments for the pupils are held, and the upper floor is used as a dormitory, in which can be accommodated eighty-five boys.

The training received in various occupations such as dress-making, machinery, wood-work, stenography, telegraphy, printing, etc., gives to the graduates a means by which they can go from there in a position to help themselves, and with a pride that gives them assurance that they will not be dependents. In every direction I found evidences of the utmost care exercised that would add to the comfort and pleasure of all concerned.

Most especially do I desire to say a word of the quality of the food given; it is of the best quality, prepared well and served quickly.

I feel that I would be derelict did I not call attention to the excellent band of forty pieces composed as it is of the pupils of the school. It shows a proficiency that would be envied by bands of our cities.

Too much credit cannot be given to the members of the Soldiers' Orphans' Commission, who have so unselfishly given of their time and ability to carry out the object for which the Homes were created, and on behalf of you my comrades I extend to them our sincere thanks for their unselfish devotion to this duty.

My thanks are tendered to Superintendent Captain George W. Skinner, Honorable Thad. M. Mahon and Captain W. C. Bambrick, Military Instructor, for the many courtesies extended to me during my visit.

In obedience to the requirement of an Act of Assembly, approved May 27th, 1893, section 3, P. L. 172, I recommended to the Governor for appointment as members of the commission having charge of the Soldiers' Orphans' School of Pennsylvania, the following named five honorably discharged soldiers: Past Commander-in-Chief J. P. S. Gobin, Past Department Commander Levi G. McCauley, Past Department Commander James F. Morrison, Comrade Thad. M. Mahon and Past Department Commander W. J. Patterson. These recommendations met with approval of the Governor, who thereupon made the appointments.

WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS.

The Pennsylvania Memorial Home at Brookville, Jefferson county, is under the control of the Women's Relief Corps. It was my pleasure to visit this beautiful home on Thursday, April 15th. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Miller, and her able assistant, Miss Bennett, I was shown through the entire building and personally greeted each inmate. I was favorably impressed with the cleanly and good sanitary condition and fine furnishings. These loyal women are doing a noble work in caring for the needy and helpless comrade and wife. There is every evidence of careful arrangement on the part of the officers in charge and the Board of Directors. This grand Home reflects great credit upon the patriotic women of the Women's Relief Corps of Pennsylvania.

THE LADIES OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

The Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic support a Home at Hawkins Station, where the mother, widow, and sister are cared for and is a modern structure fully equipped with every convenience to make comfortable the eighty or more inmates. It is a large institution and the thorough and systematic manner in which it is managed is a great credit to the order that supports and controls it. A large annex to cost about $18,000 is to be built this summer.

HOME FOR AGED VETERAN AND WIFE.

The Home at 65th and Vine Streets, Philadelphia, is for the veteran and wife. A beautiful new home carefully managed where the veteran and his life companion may pass their last declining years in peace and comfort. They can accommodate 100 people. This Home is supported by the Ladies of the G. A. R. of Philadelphia and vicinity.

With the Assistant Adjutant General I had the pleasure of visiting and fully inspecting both of these splendid institutions with very satisfactory results. The Ladies of the Grany Army of the Republic is an organization composed exclusively of the mothers, wives, sisters, daughters, grand-daughters, nieces of veterans, blood kin and ex-army nurses. They are earnest and patriotic, and are performing their great work in a quiet and unostentatious manner.

SONS OF VETERANS.

This splendid organization, I am pleased to state, has made favorable progress during my administration. If the comrades would take more interest in the order, by urging their own sons and grandsons to affiliate themselves with it, it would in a few years become the strongest organization numerically in the Union. The Sons of Veterans are destined to take our places after we have answered the last roll call and to perpetuate our memories and take up and continue our work where we leave off. They should be encouraged to aid and assist us on all public occasions, most especially to participate in all ceremonies incidental to the proper observance of Memorial Day. They should also be invited to accompany the comrades on their annual visits to the schools, and take part in the patriotic exercises prior to Memorial Day. The Sons of Veterans have a noble duty to perform in taking the places of their fathers and grand-fathers, and we hope to see each camp filled to the limit.

AUXILIARIES.

There are thousands of patriotic ladies throughout this State who render inestimable aid to our comrades. These ladies are true auxiliaries in the great work we are endeavoring to do and perpetuate. In very many places these ladies have organizations but whether organized or not, at all the Posts I had the honor to visit the labor of these patriotic women was strongly in evidence and the great work they are accomplishing is recognized and appreciated by all the comrades in this Department.

PENSION BILL.

At the Erie Encampment last year Comrade H. H. Bengough, presented and read the following report on Pension Legislation:

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Comrade. The committee to whom was referred the several pension bills presented for the consideration of the encampment have given the subject matter careful consideration and would fraternally report:

The bills presented differ so widely in construction and application that your committee join in recommending that the entire subject with the billis presented be referred to a committee of seven to be appointed by the incoming Commander, with direction and fully empowered to formulate a pension bill and present the same to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at the next regular session; such bill being the only one to be considered as having the sanction and approval of the Department of Pennsylvania Grand Army of the Republic.

Faternally submitted,

H. H. Bengough, Post 157.

W. H. Redheffer, Post 2.

J. C. Kisskadon, Post 105.

Moved and seconded that the report be received and adopted, unanimously agreed to.

In pursuance of the authority in me vested as Department Commander, I appointed the following named Comrades as a Pension Committee.

H. H. Bengough, Chairman, Post 157, Pittsburgh.

J. D. Hicks, Post 468, Altoona.

J. W. Frazier, Post 18, Philadelphia.

W. H. Redheffer, Post 2, Philadelphia.

George H. Troutman, Post 97, Wilkes-Barre.

A. B. Stevens, Post 139, Scranton.

William H. Crook, Post 37, York.

The committee met and organized in Harrisburg, and prepared a bill known as the "Grand Army Bill," and the same was presented to the Legislature. I attended four different meetings aiding and assisting in every possible way, but our efforts were in vain. The chairman of the committee will furnish a full report. The failure of the State to provide pensions is to be regretted, and is a keen disappointment not only to the Comrades entitled to the same but to their numerous friends throughout the State. The able assistance rendered by Senator E. F. Blewitt and Representative Reyburn should not be forgotten by the Comrades.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Another Memorial Day has come and gone since the Department Encampment met last June. In the larger towns and cities the Sons of Veterans and Spanish War Veterans marched in parade, while our old comrades were given transportation in automobiles and other conveyances generously furnished by the good citizens. We appreciate their kindly action. We must acknowledge that we are getting old but not too old to teach patriotism. Our presence upon all public occasions should be an inspiration to the youth of our land to continue the beautiful custom of strewing the graves of deceased comrades with the choicest flowers of spring time, also the discontinuance of any attempt at desecrating this day so sacred to the living comrades and to all the loved ones of those who have crossed the Great River.

DEPARTMENT OFFICERS.

I respectfully call your attention to the reports of the different staff officers. The reports should be carefully read. They show the work that has been accomplished; the gains, losses and present strength; the receipt and disbursements of money and balance in the treasury.

Senior Vice Commander, Thomas H. Cole, has done splendid work by personally visiting over fifteen Posts in different cities and towns. He also accompanied me on my visits to Pittsburg and to the Soldiers' Home at Erie. He is a pillar of strength to the Grand Army in north-western Pennsylvania.

Junior Vice Commander, W. M. Heddens, visited several Posts with me and has done good work during my administration.

Department Chaplain, Rev. John W. Sayres, D. D., is known and loved by every comrade. His service in the order and record as a soldier, his gentle manner and comforting ministrations to the afflicted comrades have made his name a household word in the Department of Pennsylvania.

The members of the Council of Administration have performed the duties of their office faithfully and promptly.

Assistant Adjutant General, Charles A. Suydam, is one of the best known comrades in the order. He was ever prompt, careful and expeditious. A more devoted and enthusiastic comrade does not exist. He was ready at all times, and no obstacle however great deterred from attending to his duties and assisting in every praiseworthy effort, to build up the organization and give encouragement to his comrades.

I have unbounded confidence in his judgment and integrity. His long practical experience in the Department work has made him an almost indispensable officer. To him I am under great personal obligations. He personally represented the Department Commander at many Posts which I was unable to reach. May he long be spared to the Department of Pennsylvania.

Assistant Quartermaster General, C. F. Gramlich, is a most faithful comrade. He discharged the duties of his office with fidelity and credit to himself and for the best interest of the Department. He kindly accompanied me on many of my visitations and is much appreciated by his comrades.

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR.

Charles O. Smith, Department Patriotic Instructor, is a comrade of fine attainments and thoroughly in love with the duties of the office he honors. He is a zealous Grand Army worker. He gave me great aid and assistance during my administration, and accompanied me on many of my visitations. He is doing a great work for the Department of Pennsylvania and deserves unstinted praise.

JUDGE ADVOCATE.

P. H. Campbell, my comrade and life friend never failed me. In all matters submitted to him he was prompt and impartial in his decisions. He is unassuming and modest in manner. A lawyer who stands at the head of his profession where his great ability is recognized; a zealous worker for the Grand Army, and in constant demand as a speaker on patriotic and other occasions.

Department Inspector, Comrade William J. Wells, is a thorough and energetic worker, and rendered me much valuable assistance in my visitations. He has and is still doing splendid work for the Department of Pennsylvania.

Chief of Staff S. N. Callender acquitted himself with dignity on all occasions. It was my pleasure to have him accompany me on several of my visitations to different parts of the State. He is one of the most popular comrades in the Department, and a welcome guest everywhere. His willingness to entertain makes him a host in himself.

Chief Mustering Officer Thomas G. Jones is a comrade who has discharged the duties of the office with fidelity and honor to himself and his comrades in the Department. He accompanied me upon several of my visitations to the Posts of Allegheny county, and was a most hospitable host.

Medical Director Dr. Albert M. Smith is a most efficient and popular officer, enthusiastic to a high degree and a hustler in Grand Army work. He accompanied me on some of my visitations, and I fully appreciate his good work and great service.

My report would be incomplete were I to omit mentioning that painstaking, obliging and friendly comrade John N. Reber, Clerk at Department Headquarters. His services are valued highly, and his uniform courtesy to all has endeared him to his comrades.

I also wish to pay tribute to chairman H. H. Bengough and the members of the Pension Committee who worked zealously night and day, contributed their time and labor to the cause of their comrades in every way possible to advance the passage of the Grand Army Bill in the General Assembly. The bill failed to pass. No Comrade in the Department feels more keenly the disappointment at the result, especially after the great work of the committee and their labor of several months for their comrades to be turned down in the house of their alleged friends by men who have posed for years as the friends of the old soldiers. To this committee the sincere thanks of the Department of Pennsylvania Grand Army of the Republic is hereby extended.

IN MEMORIAM.

Since last we met in annual Encampment, nearly 1,200 of our Comrades have crossed the great divide, many of whom were most active in the affairs of Department and Post. We shall miss their counsel, their companionship, and their loyalty to the Grand Army. As our ranks are thus thinned, it behooves us to move just a little closer, that we may feel the Comrade to the right and to the left, knowing that with a determined front, we shall still be able to accomplish much good for the survivor, the widow, and the orphan.

While probably it would be best to not individualize, yet I must call attention to one of those who in earlier days of the Department was a tower of strength, Past Department Commander, W. W. Tyson, who served us so faithfully in 1875 and who at all times kept up his Post membership "Faithful unto Death."

One of the saddest events connected with my administration was the sudden and untimely death of our distinguished Comrade of the State Pension Committee, Judge George H. Troutman. He was a gallant soldier, a brilliant orator, and a faithful comrade, honest, generous, open-hearted, and unostentatious. To those who have been bereaved we extend our sincere condolence.

CONCLUSION.

In accepting the signal honor conferred on me by being chosen Department Commander, I felt overwhelmed with the great responsibilities of the eminent position and feared I might not measure up to the qualifications necessary to make a success of my administration. I have been unable to accomplish as much as I desired, but my zeal was great for the best interest of the Grand Army. The great courtesy and kind hospitality extended to me by the officers and comrades of the Department will remain in my memory through life.

I am deeply grateful for the assistance rendered by the officers of my staff, aides and comrades.

May you all be inspired with renewed energy to put forth your best efforts for the advancement of our order and upholding its motto of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty.

Report of the Senior Vice Department Commander.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of the Senior Vice Department Commander,
Erie, May 22, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General, Department of Penn'a, G. A. R.

Comrade: I present the following report as Senior Vice Commander:

It is not contemplated that the Senior Vice Commander shall be brought into active service, except in case of emergency or in the event of casualty to the Commander. Thanks to a kind Providence no such contingency has arisen. The comrade called to the Commandership of the Department has been blessed with sufficient physical strength to prosecute what he said to me was his cherished desire—that of an extended itinerary among the Posts of the Department. His ambition in this matter has been gratified, he prosecuting his desire with intense zeal, ability, and conscientiousness, untiring in his efforts to stimulate the efficiency of his staff and the enthusiasm of the comrades.

It was my very great pleasure, in company with the Commander and the Assistant Adjutant General, to pay an official visit to the Posts of Pittsburg, where the comrades received us with evident satisfaction. It was a very pleasant visit to us and I trust profitable to them. The Commander delivered an address and a number of the Commander's staff, including the Assistant Adjutant General, also made addresses which were well received by the comrades. Such experience with so favorable opportunities for observation has exalted my already high conception of the ties of comradeship that unite us, and which must necessarily increase in affectionate consideration as time advances, and our own ranks become depleted by the "Grim Reaper."

I have made official visits to a number of the Posts in the north-western section of the State and received a royal welcome in every instance, and when my visit was made during favorable weather I found the attendance almost up to the total of the Post Roster and it was gratifying to witness the enthusiasm of the comrades.

It has also been my privilege to visit our public and parochial schools and talk to the children on the subject of the flag, endeavoring to interest them in its history and significance; stimulating their pride and enthusiasm for it, and exhorting them to a more generous display of "Old Glory" on Flag Day.

I have also made frequent visits to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, located at Erie. This institution is not only a credit to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, but equally creditable to the comrades who have supervision over the management of its affairs. Nothing is left undone to make the inmates comfortable and happy. Many of them have expressed to me their appreciation of the kind, sympathetic treatment accorded them since becoming inmates. I am glad to bear this official testimony to the efficiency of the Home and its management.

During my long years of service in the Grand Army of the Republic I have come to know many of my comrades throughout the Department personally and intimately, and I cannot refrain from giving expression to the feeling of friendship and affection I entertain for them.

I sincerely thank my comrades for the many courtesies received at their hands, expressing my sense of the deep obligation I am under for the honor conferred upon me at the last Department Encampment, which will be ever cherished in grateful memory.

With deep appreciation of the many personal and official courtesies received, I am,

Yours in Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty,

THOS. H. COLE,
Senior Vice Commander.

Report of Junior Vice Department Commander.

Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of Junior Vice Department Commander,
Danville, Pa., May 17, 1909.

CHAS. A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Comrade: I herewith submit my report as Junior Vice Department Commander for the term ending June, 1909:

I wish to express to my comrades of this Department my thanks for the honor conferred upon me a year ago, and assure them that my gratitude and appreciation is sincere and lasting.

It has been my aim to be as helpful to the Department, as my time and ability would permit. I have in the discharge of my official duty visited a number of Posts and Sons of Veteran Camps, and other organizations connecting with the Grand Army of the Republic and by my voice and action encouraged them in the work of the order. My experience teaches me that while the ranks are growing thinner each year the spirit of comradeship is growing stronger as we grow older.

In a few years the Grand Army of the Republic, represented by the boys who wore the blue, from 1861 to '65, will be something to be held only in the memory of all loyal Americans.

I have been deeply interested in the building of a soldiers' monument, in Danville, Pa., the only one in the county. We are now completing the same and will dedicate it on May 31, 1909.

In closing my report I express my thanks to all the Comrades who have so kindly favored me during my term of office, the many courtesies extended to me will always be gratefully remembered. I hope that when our Comrades assemble for roll call before our great Commander, I may be in the ranks with them to answer "Here."

Yours in F, C, and L,

WILLIAM H. HEDDENS,
Junior Vice Department Commander.

Gains, by reinstatement, transfer, and muster were, 1,295; net loss, 845.

The Department is kept at a high state of efficiency, all of which is due to the strong fraternal loyalty of our Comrades, to the principles of our organization, and they realize to the fullest extent, that the founders of the Grand Army of the Republic, builded better than they knew.

In many Posts, recruiting has produced most excellent results, and yet, the "Grim Reaper" recruits the largest number, nevertheless I believe that with a more determined effort, many could be brought into affiliation with us, to this end it would be well at all Camp Fires and re-unions to invite those in the respective localities, who are entitled to membership, to join with us in these festivities, and let them by personal contact realize, what Comradeship stands for as practised by our organization.

During the year I visited many Posts throughout the Department, and it was also my pleasure to attend quite a number of Camp Fires, anniversaries, and re-unions, all of which proved of the most enjoyable character, the spirit of Comradship displayed is what has kept me "young in the faith."

To you Commander I extend my most earnest thanks for the appointment that came to me through you, during the year that I have been associated with you, I felt that I had your entire confidence, that everything between us was as an open book, if I have succeeded in performing the duties of the position to your satisfaction, as also to that of my Comrades, I rest content.

To the entire membership of the Staff, to the very, very many Comrades who have aided me in every way possible that lightened my duties, and made this year so pleasant, I tender to one and all my most heartfelt thanks.

Faternally yours,

CHARLES A. SUYDAM,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Report of Assistant Quartermaster General.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of the Assistant Quartermaster General,
Philadelphia, May 12, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Comrade: I have the honor to submit herewith my report for the fiscal year now closing. I appreciate the great honor conferred one year ago, at Erie, Pa., by Department Commander P. DeLacy in re-appointing me Assistant Quartermaster General and I thank him for the confidence reposed in me, having always manifested a deep interest in our organization. I am sorry that my health prevented me from being more active in the official visitation to Posts with the Department Commander. I also thank you for the many courtesies received during the year; may God protect and keep you steadfast, in your onward march of life. Also my thanks are due to Comrade John N. Reber, Department Clerk, for his faithful and efficient service rendered during my year as also to the officers and staff, and Comrades of the Department; also the Ladies of the G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps, for the many courtesies received. There is no outstanding indebtedness, every bill has been paid, and the books, vouchers, checks, deposit books, etc., have been duly audited, showing amount of cash and value of bonds, belonging to the Department. I desire to call attention to the balance of twenty-five dollars remaining in my hands at last report, belonging to Comrade J. L. Adams, of Post No. 111. It was returned to Comrade Adams on August 7, 1908. Herewith note abstracts Nos. 1 to 7, which show amount of cash and value of bonds, detailing every item of receipts during the year, and also every expense paid after its approval by the Council of Administration:

Abstract I. Current account.

Abstract II. Receipts from per capita tax.

Abstract III. Receipts from sale of supplies.

Abstract IV. Detail of disbursements.

Abstract V. Expended for purchase of supplies.

Abstract VI. Disbursements monthly.

Abstract VII. List of supplies on hand, with cost.

Yours in F. C. and L.
CHRISTIAN F. GRAMLICH,
Assistant Quartermaster General.

Number of Posts, the prospects of which are fair,	170
Number of Posts, the prospects of which are poor,	105

In conducting the affairs of my office, I have aimed to get the best results. In order to accomplish this, I first tried to secure the best equipped and efficient comrades in the Department to accept the appointment of the office of Assistant Inspector-at-Large, a position requiring good judgment, energy, and willingness to perform the labor and watchfulness to see that the proper Assistant Inspectors be recommended for appointment, and when so appointed, to see that the work be promptly and efficiently performed, and the Reports of Inspection be promptly forwarded to Headquarters. It is proper here, to say that my task at this late day in the history of our noble organization, (when comrades, having arrived at advanced age, are apt to seek rest, and cling to home comfort), would have been greatly retarded and difficult, had you not so kindly aided me with your valuable knowledge of affairs and the general comradeship of the Department, gained in the many years spent in the service as Department Inspector, and in the office you now so efficiently fill, for all of which I desire to extend my grateful acknowledgements. Having secured the names of comrades in the various districts who would accept the duties, I opened a correspondence with them, looking to their acceptance of the office. On account of infirmities and conditions, requiring no comment, it is no easy matter to obtain the consent of suitable comrades to fill these important positions, but, after a little hesitation, all accepted, and the result indicates the arduous work performed. Inspectors are "the eyes" of the Department. Upon their official visits, the Posts are on their good behavior, and vie with each other to secure a "good report" at Headquarters. This is proved by the unusual attendance in numbers and in uniform, and by the attention paid to the work and to the kindly advice of the Inspecting Officer. Inspections bring out a larger attendance, generally, than any other occasion, except Memorial Day ceremonies and the visit of Department Officers. Another good feature is that many delinquent dues are collected on these occasions. Comrades living in cities or other large communities, could they see the large attendance of comrades at the so-called "Country Posts" on these inspections, where the comradeship is scattered over many miles and few in number, where the means of travel are inadequate, and roads bad, I think they would show their appreciation of the self-abnegation of these noble comrades of ours by giving better attendance at their own musters. These are the "picket posts." Their camp fires are burning bright on every hilltop, in every valley, along every stream. We must give those comrades great credit for their patriotic determination never to surrender their charter, clinging to it as the anchor of their hope. The nearer they come to translation to the Great Encampment beyond, the closer they cling to each other. No other order can boast of such devotion. "The ties that bind them were welded in the fires of battle;" "They die, but never surrender." It is gratifying to me to read the fervid "remarks" of the Inspectors accompanying their reports.

In closing this report, I desire to extend my grateful thanks to the Department Commander for his appointment of me as Department Inspector; to yourself for the many kindnesses bestowed upon me; to the various members of the Staff with whom I have been privileged to associate; to the Assistant Inspectors-at-Large and Assistant Inspectors, whose self-sacrificing labors have been so freely given, proving so beneficial to the good of the Department; and to all other comrades whom I have met in the performance of my duty, especially upon the numerous occasions of my official and social visits to Posts.

Fraternally yours,

WILLIAM J. WELLS,
Department Inspector.

†Disbanded; unable longer to keep post up.

‡Disbanded; Books and Charter in hands of George Doone, last Commander, Patton, Pa., subject to call from Headquarters.

Report of Judge Advocate.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of Judge Advocate,

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 3, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General.

Comrade: I have the honor to submit through you to the Department encampment the following report as Judge Advocate of the Department.

During my official term of office there has been but two cases referred to me for my consideration by the Department Commander. Referring to them in the order in which they came to me the first was that of General William Keim, Post 76 G. A. R. Department of Pennsylvania located at Reading, Pa.

QUESTION FOR DECISION.

At the instalation of officers of said Post in January, 1905, Henry J. Fink, was duly installed Quarter Master of the Post and gave a bond as required by the rules and regulations. The following of which is a copy:

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That I, Henry J. Fink, of Reading, Berks County, State of Pennsylvania, and Albert Ritter and George M. Greall of the same place are held and firmly bound unto General William Keim, Post 76 G. A. R. Department of Pennsylvania, located at Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania, in the sum of one thousand dollars lawful money of the United States of America to be paid to the said General William Keim, Post 76, Grand Army of the Republic or its certain Attorney, executors, administrators, or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made, I bind myself or my legal heirs, executors and administrators are held firmly by these presents.

Sealed with my seal dated the second day of January, A. D. 1905, Whereas the above bounden, Henry J. Fink has been elected Quarter Master of General W. H. Keim Post 76, G. A. R. of Reading, Pa., by reason whereas various sums of money, etc., will come into his custody. Therefore the condition of the above bond is such that if the said Henry J. Fink his executors or administrators at the expiration of his term of service shall pay to his successors in office or any other person authorized to receive the same all sums of money, books, etc., or other property in his hands without fraud or further delay than the above obligation to be void or else to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed and delivered in the presence of Howard D. Boone.

HENRY J. FINK. (Seal.)

ALBERT RITTER. (Seal.)

GEO. M. GREALL. (Seal.)

On the back of this bond is the following:

Notice is hereby given that bonds given previous to this are declared null and void and being of no further use. This bond to remain in force as long as the said Henry J. Fink shall hold his office.

(Signed) HENRY J. FINK.

Henry J. Fink served as Quarter Master during the year, 1905 and was re-elected as such and served during the years 1906, 1907 and was serving during the year 1908, when the question now under discussion was raised. At his installation January, 1905, he gave the above recited bond but gave no other for the years, 1906, 1907, and 1908 claiming this was a "continuing bond."

This is the question for decision. Was this bond such that his sureties could be held responsible for any default made by him during the years, 1906, 1907 and 1908?

DECISION.

I filed my opinion with the Assistant Adjutant General, hence I will only here give briefly what my decision was.

The rules and regulations give no form of a Quartermaster's bond. It only says that every Quartermaster shall give a bond in a sum to be named by the Post with sufficient sureties for the faithful discharge of his duties. And that this bond shall be required before he is installed.

The obligation undertaken by Henry J. Fink's sureties was that if he would not as Quartermaster at the expiration of the term of his service account for and turn over moneys, etc., they his sureties would do it for him. It will be seen that the solution of this question is what was the term of his service.

Was not the term of his service the same as all other elective officers of the Post? one year from the first meeting in December, 1904? It will be noticed that his term of service is in the singular and not in the plural. It is service and not services.

Fink's sureties must have considered this only for one year because when he, Fink, undertook to extend the time for which they would be legally liable by endorsing on the bond, "this bond to remain in force as long as the said Henry J. Fink shall hold his office," they failed to put their names with him to this additional stipulation to the bond. He, putting such endorsement on the bond, could in no wise affect their liability. It could neither increase nor diminish it. They were bound only by what they signed. Had the condition of the bond been that he should faithfully account, etc., during the term of his service for which he was then elected or for any other term or terms for which he might be subsequently elected, the bond would be a continuing one.

The conditions "during the term of his service," during the term of his office, "during his continuance in said office," have been construed by our courts to mean only during the term to which he was elected at the time the bond was given and that this language of the condition can not be stretched so as to make the sureties liable beyond the letter of their engagement.

I therefore hold in my opinion that the bond given by Henry J. Fink as Quartermaster for said Post was given for the faithful performance of his duties for the year 1905 only, and for any default in any subsequent year his sureties were not liable.

The second case referred to me was that of General George A. McCall, Post No. 31, Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic.

CASE.

At a regular meeting of the above named Post the Post Commander issued to the Quartermaster of the Post an order in writing which he read. By direction of this order the Quartermaster was directed to do certain duties connected with the Post.

As soon as the order was read two of the members of the Post appealed from the action of the Post Commander. This motion for an appeal the Post Commander refused to entertain on the ground that the order so made by him was a "privileged" one upon which the Post had no right to vote. Both the would be appellants and the Post Commander submitted in writing to the Department Commander their views upon the question in controversy which were turned over to the Judge Advocate for his decision.

DECISION.

Upon the undisputed facts as above given and as stated in my opinion filed with the Assistant Adjutant General, I am clearly of the opinion that the Post Commander was in error in refusing to entertain the motion for an appeal from his order to the Quartermaster. A Post may appeal from and reverse the decision of the Post Commander as well upon a question relative to the Rules and Regulations as upon questions arising upon proper construction of the by-laws of the Post.

A Post Commander may refuse to entertain a motion believing it to be out of order, but an appeal will lie from his decision.

Blue Book of 1895, page 176.

The proper thing for the Post Commander to have done and which he ought to have done was to have entertained the motion for an appeal. Had the Post sustained him the appellants had left their right to an appeal to the Department Commander. Had he been reversed by a vote of the Post he had his right to an appeal and thus both parties rights would have been protected.

These are the only cases referred to me for official action.

With grateful thanks for the kindness shown me by our Department Commander and the members of his official staff, I am

Respectfully and Fraternally Yours,

P. H. CAMPBELL,
Judge Advocate.

Report of Chief Mustering Officer.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of Chief Mustering Officer,

Pittsburg, Pa., May 24, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Dear Sir and Comrade: I herewith send my report as Chief Mustering Officer of the Department of Pennsylvania.

The time has come when the duties of this office are exceedingly light. I have made many visits to the Posts located in Allegheny county, and have accompanied Comrade C. O. Smith, the Department Patriotic Instructor, assisting him as far as I could in his work.

The membership of the Grand Army of the Republic is gradually diminishing, but the interest taken by those who remain is stronger to-day than ever before.

Upon my recommendation, a number of special orders (64) were issued for open and closed installations. I had the pleasure of accompanying the Department Commander and his staff to the National Encampment at Toledo, Ohio, and also on his visits to the different Posts in the county including the Widows Home at Hawkins Station.

Fraternally yours,

THOMAS G. JONES.
Chief Mustering Officer.

Report of Patriotic Instructor.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,

Pittsburg, May 21, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Dear Comrade: I herewith present my fourth annual report as Department Patriotic Instructor.

To avoid repetition, I will call attention to my report of last year, and a supplementary report published in the proceedings of our 42d Annual Department Encampment (June 3d and 4th, 1908, pages 170 and 237) these are almost wholly as apropos to-day as when written.

Post Patriotic Instructors could acquire helpful information by studying the published proceedings of National and Department Encampments.

Upon my reappointment I renewed my efforts to bring about a more general recognition of "Flag Day" (June 14th). In this as all worthy movements the Press throughout the State rendered commendable service. Only recently it was an important factor in preventing the enactment of a deceptive and obnoxious amendment to Pennsylvania's excellent Flag Law.

By virtue of my office I was a member of the committee on the "One Hundredth Anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's Birth." This committee met during the National Encampment at Toledo and made its report to that body and the same was adopted. One of its recommendations was for the issuing by the Grand Army of the Republic of a "Lincoln Centennial Souvenir Medal." This medal is now being distributed. There are many ways wherein it might be used to advantage by Patriotic Instructors and others, in sympathy with, and interested in patriotic work. I therefore recommend that our affiliating societies, "The Womans Relief Corps," "Ladies of the Grand Army," "Sons of Veterans" and "Daughters of Veterans" be granted the privilege of purchasing these medals through Post Quartermasters, to be used only for such purposes as shall meet the approval of the Grand Army of the Republic, transmitted through its National and Department Patriotic Instructors. I also recommend that after a sufficient quantity of the medals is made, the die be destroyed and none be cast after this year (1909), thereby enhancing their sentimental value with the passing of years, and that of the Grand Army of the Republic. I hope these recommendations will be referred to the National Encampment with recommendation for their adoption. Considering the number (about 100 or not more than 1-5 of the Posts) that have reported, it is still evident that many Post Commanders are not complying with the rules and regulations relative to the appointing and installing of Post Patriotic Instructors. Possibly some Commanders do not realize the importance of the office and others may not be able to find a Comrade willing to accept and perform the duties. Still, whatever the reason for the non-compliance with the law, it should be reported to the Department Patriotic Instructor. Notwithstanding the seeming indifference above referred to, the Department of Pennsylvania can feel proud of its Patriotic achievements as evidenced in the splendid reports received from Comrades in all sections of the State, and from expressions of appreciation and commendation by organizations operating along lines in harmony with this Department of the Grand Army. Among these it is pleasing to mention the "American Flag Association," the "Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution," The Association for establishing Camp Schools for foreign laborers. Also the Church, Press and those in charge of the education of the youth of our land. These and many other organizations are working in sympathy with the Grand Army of the Republic and rendering valuable service to their country. The Grand Army of the Republic does not claim a monopoly on Patriotism, it stands for any movement or organization having for its object the welfare of the nation and uplifting of its people. It is often asked "What are the duties of Post Patriotic Instructors?" They are to carry out the precepts of our Order. These are well defined by some of our prominent Comrades as follows:

"To preserve and strengthen those kind and fraternal feelings which bind together the soldiers, sailors and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion, and to perpetuate the memory and history of the dead."

LOUIS WAGNER.

Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic in its beneficent career of over 40 years has been of incalculable service to all the Veterans of the War for the Union, and has thus been the means of conferring benefits upon hundreds of thousands who have failed to show their appreciation by personal service in the Order."

ROBT. B. BEATH,

Post Commander in Chief.

"Membership is not a matter of sentiment, but a holy obligation resting upon those who stood on the firing line in the sixties."

ROBT. B. BROWN,

Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic represents the patriotism and love of country that made it possible to organize the splendid army and navy through whose devotion and sacrifice the Union was saved from disruption. It has fostered and intensified reverence for the memory of the heroic dead of the nation, and tenderly cared for the widow and orphan of the fallen. It has kept up the elbow-touch and heart-beat of comradeship among the survivors of the struggle for the Union, and in its annual gatherings has stimulated the patriotism of the people. The work, the purpose, and the history of the Grand Army of the Republic attest the high character and devotion of the men who were willing to die that the nation might live."

THOS. J. STEWART,
Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic, the one organization that has for its object the welfare of the nation and those who compose its inhabitants an organization without a peer and without a successor."

JOHN P. GOBIN,
Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic stands for the loftiest patriotism and under its Banner of Peace and Love and Friendship, it is an honor to the American soldier and to civilization."

J. S. KOUNTZ,
Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic stands for the man whose devotion to country preserved to us and to our children a government of the people, by the people, and for the people."

WILLIAM WARNER,
Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic is an army without weapons and without rank, organized to win victories of peace even greater than those won upon battlefield, and its ultimate purpose is to make fraternity a national anthem, charity a national virtue, and loyalty a national creed."

ELL TORRANCE,
Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic stands for the highest ideals of good citizenship. It places paramount value on fidelity to country and insists upon equal rights and justice to all men."

A. G. WESSERT,
Post Commander in Chief.

"The Grand Army of the Republic stands pre-eminently for purity in public affairs."

J. R. KING,
Post Commander in Chief.

"We stand for the schoolhouse, the church and the home. Every little schoolhouse that dots the plain or nestles in the grove, is a fort; every academy of learning, college or university is a garrison; every church or cathedral, with its spire pointing heavenward and its clear ringing bell inviting men and women to come and sit at the feet of Him who taught as man ne'er taught before, is a fort, a garrison and a citadel, and every God-fearing mother in all this land, who, at her own home and her own hearthstone, instills into the minds of her boys and girls the immutable principles of right and wrong, who teaches her boys to be clean manly men, and her girls to be pure, virtuous women, who teaches them both to love their country and its flag, and to emulate the virtues of its heroes, living and dead, every such God-fearing mother is a recruiting officer for the Grand Army that shall perpetuate the Republic."

CHARLES G. BURTON,
Post Commander in Chief.

This, the Centennary year of Abraham Lincoln's birth is one of inspiring patriotic activity and the Grand Army of the Republic is in the front rank, adding greater lustre to its already brilliant record.

I acknowledge with thanks the courteous treatment and encouraging co-operation of Commander De Lacy, yourself and every member of the staff, also that of many other Comrades whose names it would be a pleasure to mention.

Fraternally yours,

CHARLES O. SMITH,
Patriotic Instructor.

Report of the Medical Director.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of the Medical Director,

Beaver Springs, May 17, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Comrade: The position of Medical Director on the Staff of the Department Commander, is one simply to keep up the personal of his Staff. It is no longer required that Post Surgeons shall report to this office, nor that a report be forwarded from the Medical Director to the Surgeon General hence in presenting this report to the Officers and Representatives of the 43d Annual Department Encampment, it will necessarily be short.

During the year almost ended, I have kept in close touch with my Comrades in various parts of the Department, and made many visits of a professional character, to those of our Order who needed my services, which as a rule were of a gratuitous character.

I had the pleasure of attending the 42d National Encampment at Toledo, Ohio. in company with the Department Commander and Staff. and was greatly impressed with the appearance of the Comrades on parade, it was wonderful to note their sturdy appearance, as with head erect they showed the pride that was theirs, in having been a part of that "Grand Army" that saved the Nation, and that 43 years after their services were no longer required, they were once again permitted to meet in re-union.

It is very pleasant to look back over my years of service as an official, and recall the fact that so many of the earnest workers that it has been my pleasure to meet, are still through a kind Providence remaining among us, to help in the good work for which we are an organization.

Fraternally yours,

ALBERT M. SMITH, M. D.,
Medical Director.

Report of the Department Chaplain.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of the Department Chaplain,

Chester, June 2, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Comrade: I have the honor of submitting to you my annual report as Chaplain of the Department for the year 1908.

It is my 37th report. What memories, some joyous and others sad, cluster around these years. How many of our Comrades in the full strength and vigor of manhood 37 years ago have become enfeebled with age and burdened with infirmities and alas, how many thousands have been mustered out and are sleeping to-day in their silent tombs. The private soldier and the officers who commanded them have alike gone into the beyond. How fondly we think of them, how lovingly we cherish their memories. How we sigh for "The touch of the vanished hand and the sound of the voice that is still." To-day we note in sorrow the decimated rank of the Grand Army of the Republic. During the past year ten hundred and ninety-two comrades with Past Department Commander Major W. W. Tyson have left our Post rooms never to return. Among them were some of the brightest and best beloved of all our Comrades, and to-day we miss many who were wont to unite with us in our annual reunions, encampments and campfires. Their virtues are given on our hearts, their patriotic devotion to their country is recorded in our archives. Their names and their heroic deeds will be held in affectionate remembrance. Comrades, we are facing the stern fact that not many years will elapse before the last soldier of those splendid armies whose valor won the admiration of the world at Antietam, at Gettysburg, at Vicksburg, at Shiloh, at Fredericksburg, at Petersburg, with those who fought on the sea of our great war shall have been laid in the grave.

Let remembrance of our dead perform our every thought and direct our conduct.

During the year I have visited many Posts. Regimental Associations and reunions not as often as I have wished, but as often as my duties as pastor of a large church permitted. I have been called upon again and again during the year to speak the last words over Comrades whose worthy pilgrimage has come to a close.

On Memorial Day I had the honor of delivering the address for Gen. W. S. Hancock Post No. 255 of Downingtown. I also preached two memorial sermons. The report from the Post Chaplains shows as much interest as ever in Memorial Day. The heroic deeds of patriotic service and sacrifice are being kept green in the hearts and memories of the American people, not only by the remnant of that vast army, whose tread though feeble now, once shook the very earth beneath their feet, in their victorious marches through the southland, but also by the Sons of Veterans striving to perpetuate the memories of their patriotic fathers, and by the children of the public schools in which wisely, exercises are held annually to impress upon the minds of the youth of our country the deeds of valor and heroism of the great union armies during the struggle from '61 to '65.

Indeed it seems as if "time but the impression stronger makes as streams their channels deeper wear."

I also preached a sermon in Philadelphia on the Sabbath of Founders Week to the Posts of that city in St. George's Methodist Episcopal Church.

There was a great gathering crowding the house. It did honor to our organization. I also delivered two addresses in connection with the memorial services on the 100th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. Comrades, as we have been true to the flag of our country and loyal to our government, let us also be loyal and true to the Almighty Leader of the hosts of righteousness, so that when our warfare here is over, we may as soldiers of the cross have our places in the ranks of the great army beyond the skies clothed in robes of victory and resplendent with the glory of the redeemed.

To each and all I tender the thanks of a grateful trust and best wishes for the future.

Yours in F., C. and L.,

J. W. SAYERS.

Report of Chief of Staff.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Office of Chief of Staff,

Seranton, May 15, 1909.

CHARLES A. SUYDAM, Assistant Adjutant General:

Dear Comrade: I have the pleasure to present my report for the year ending with the present administration.

When I was tendered the appointment by my friend and Comrade, Department Commander DeLacy, I accepted the honor conferred believing that the position was one more of honor than of usefulness, my belief was quickly shattered when the Commander summoned me to accompany him to many visits to Posts, reunions, anniversaries and camp fires, all of which proved to be of a most enjoyable and educational character, as it brought close to me the great fraternal character of our organization.

In my intercourse with the aides-de-camp, both in person and by correspondence, I have found them to be comrades deeply interested in the objects that best promote the interests of the "Grand Army" and who most unselfishly devote their energy and time to that which will most promote the interest of our comrades individually and collectively, and I have personal knowledge in many cases that their labor has not been in vain, in my judgment the comrades recommended for appointment by their respective Post Commanders, have reflected credit upon their respective Posts.

In closing this my official connection with the Department, I do so with reluctance, because of the many friends that I have come in contact with and that have made my official life of such a very pleasant character, the memory of which I shall cherish as long as life shall be given me.

In this connection I desire to thank the Department Commander for the honor conferred by this appointment, and to yourself and members of the Staff, and the very, very, many Comrades for the kindness extended, that has made this year a memorable one to me as a comrade and as an official.

Yours in F., C. and L.,

S. N. CALLENDER,
Chief of Staff.

Report of Council of Administration.

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,

Philadelphia, May 12, 1909.

Charles A. Suydam, Assistant Adjutant General:

Comrade: The Council of Administration submit their report for the year ending with the close of the present administration.

Detailed report of the proceedings of each meeting of the council are set forth in the minutes of the twelve meetings held, to which we invite the most careful reading.

We certify that the accounts of the Assistant Quartermaster General, C. F. Gramlich, have this day been audited and found correct as follows:

Cash balance, May 9, 1908,	$3,680 24
----------------------------------	------------

Receipts.

From sale of supplies,	703 39
From per capita tax,	4,380 40
From Soldiers' and Sailors' Home,	250 00
From interest on deposits,	$4 93
Refund on account of Forty-second National Encampment,	58 50
From interest on bonds,	300 00
From delinquent per capita tax,	32 00
Reinstatement of Posts,	11 55

Total,	$9,501 01
Disbursements as per vouchers,	5,449 86

Cash balance May 12, 1909,	$4,051 15
Invested in Philadelphia 3 per cent. bonds,	10,000 00

Total assets,	$14,051 15
---------------------	-------------

In addition to the foregoing the Assistant Quartermaster General has supplies on hand to the value of $102.58, also postage amounting to $5.00.

Attention is called to the extra expense incurred during the year in connection with pension legislation amounting to $392.58, the amount having been expended by the committee appointed by the Department Commander (as directed by the 42d Annual Department Encampment), the expenses incurred were for travelling, subsistence, printing, postage and stenographer, vouchers for the same were presented and certified as correct by the Chairman of that Committee.

By action of the 42d Annual Department Encampment, "the selection of a place for holding the next Department Encampment was left to the incoming Council of Administration" at the time of the adoption of the foregoing, invitations had been extended by Conneaut Lake, Crawford county, and New Castle, Lawrence county, after the adjournment of the encampment, invitations were received on behalf of Lebanon and Gettysburg, and after considerable delay the latter named place was selected, inasmuch as a committee representing Gettysburg agreed to meet the necessary expense for badges, etc., and also for the fact that there were many appeals made for that selection.

We trust that after carefull consideration of our action in all things entrusted to our care, the conclusion may be reached that we were faithfull to the duties incumbent upon us.

Fraternally submitted,

LEMON BUCH,

Chairman.

C. F. GRAMLICH, Q. M. General.

A communication from Comrade John W. Frazier in behalf of the Philadelphia Brigade Association, asking the Council of Administration to select Gettysburg for our next Encampment. On motion the communication was filed for future reference.

Asst. Adj. Genl. Suydam stated that he by direction of the Council of Administration, went to Gettysburg and had a conference with the leading citizens, and that their opinion was that they would be able to raise the necessary amount to pay the expenses incident to the holding of the 43d Annual Encampment at that place, and had promised to advise him fully later on, but at this date had not received word from them, and since then an invitation had been received from Lebanon, asking that we select that place for the Encampment, and that they would pay the necessary expenses.

On motion of the Asst. Q. M. Genl, the selecting of the place of holding the 43d Annual Encampment was postponed for action until the next meeting of the Council of Administration.

There being no further business, adjourned at 4.30 P. M.
